Summer Session 2025

“

Participation in the Programme presupposes working on an advanced-level research project under the supervision of a JINR expert. Selected students are invited to Dubna for 6-8 weeks within the mentioned interval. At the end of their stay, they prepare a written report on the work they have done, which is posted on the Programme website.

Participation requirements:

- students from all over the world;
- specialising in science, engineering, and IT;
- starting from their 3rd year of undergraduate studies up to the 1st year of PhD;
- without previous experience of participation in the START programme (JINR Summer Student Programme).

Financial terms:

- tickets from your home/university city to Dubna and back are purchased by the Student and later on reimbursed by JINR (upon submission of all required documents).
- visa and health insurance expenses are later on reimbursed by JINR (upon submission of all required documents).
- accommodation is booked and paid by JINR.
- daily allowance of 2000 roubles per day is paid from the funds of the JINR laboratory accepting the Student.
